Details:
Three Targeted Events — One Convenient Location

Whether you choose one, two or three of these programs, you’ll learn firsthand what’s working now and what’s next. The agendas are filled with leading speakers you’ve come to expect from AHIP, including top health plan execs, industry thought leaders, and policy makers.

National Conference on Medicare
- CMS’ Andy Slavitt will discuss the agency’s priorities for the Medicare Program in 2017 and beyond.
- Jim Eppel from UCare will address the opportunities and challenges for Medicare Advantage Health Plans.
- The Role of Medicare in the future of delivery system reform, featuring CMS’ Patrick Conway, MD, MSc.

National Conference on Duals
- Melanie Bella will discuss what comes next as we move toward Duals integration.
- Learn more about Medicare-Medicaid plan demonstrations from CMS’s Federal Coordinated Health Care Office, including Tim Engelhardt, Lindsay Barnette, Sharon Donovan, Vanessa Duran, and Marla Rothouse.
- A panel of state leaders will examine prevalent and alternative program models for serving dual eligibles and their long term viability.

National Conference on Medicaid
- Virginia Governor Terry McAuliffe will deliver the Closing Keynote Address: “Medicaid Policy Priorities in the States: A Governor’s Perspective”
- CMS’ Victoria Wachino, MS will discuss the agency’s ongoing priorities for the Medicaid program and its growing role within the reformed health care system.
- James Golden, PhD from CMS will discuss the underlying themes of the final Medicaid managed care regulations.
- John Baackes from L.A. Care Health Plan will discuss how Medicaid Plans are improving beneficiary health and well-being.

Beyond the General Session Stage...

Breakfast and concurrent sessions compliment the general sessions at the Conference on Medicare and Conference on Medicaid. Throughout the week, whether you attend one or more conferences, you’ll also enjoy learning about the latest products and services in our display area.
